A large number attended from Dalenod and Carletonplace districts.

The service was jointly conducted by Rev. T. Phillips and Rev. A. D. Currie, and special music was rendered by the choir.

The floral emblems were numerous and beautiful, and besides many from friends, included wreaths from the following public bodies: Dalenod P.E.A., Strathmore G.W.A., and Ladies Auxiliary, P.R. Dept. Natural Resources Staff, Strathmore Women's Institute, and Strathmore Methodist Ladies Aid.

Liberals Are Strongest Party

Progressives In Second Place Conservatives Last

Irvine and Bennett Win Calgary Seats. Progressives Sweep West

Latest summary, received from Calgary at 11 a.m., gives the following:

|                      |                  |
|----------------------|------------------|
| LIBERALS      | 121 Seats |
| PROGRESSIVES  | 60 Seats  |
| CONSERVATIVES | 51 Seats  |
| INDEPENDENTS  | 2 Seats   |

This gives the Liberal Party a clear majority over all other parties, there being 235 seats in the Dominion House. The Maritime Provinces and Quebec went nearly solid Liberal, Ontario was divided, the results last night being approximately Conservatives 18, Liberals 24, Progressive 15, Independent 1, total 82.

The three prairie provinces, Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba, went overwhelmingly Progressive, British Columbia was the only Province to give a majority of seats to the Conservatives. In Alberta 9 seats are contested to Progressive, West Edmonton doubtful, the other two being Irvine (Labor-Farmer) and Bennett (Conservative).

IRVINE IN EAST CALGARY

Wm. Irvine had an easy victory over the other two candidates. The popular expectation was that the fight would be between Marshall and Irvine, but Smith ran ahead of Marshall throughout the polling.

The last results received were as follows: Wm. Irvine (Labor-Farmer) 6474
A. L. Smith (Conservative) 4166
D. Marshall (Liberal) 3571

R. B. Bennett, Conservative, won in West Calgary, H. West Edmonton Frank Oliver (Liberal) was reported leading, but according to this morning's telegraph dispatches the seat is doubtful, with D. J. Kennedy, Progressive, probably elected. Progressives won the other nine Alberta seats.

The results of the election show that if redistribution had taken place previous to election, the Progressives would probably have taken fifteen to twenty more seats, on account of the increased population.

PREMIER MEIGHEN DEFEATED

Winnipeg—The defeat of Premier Meighen in Portage La Prairie is probable. Thirty-two polls out of 38 gives Lender, Progressive, 3677 and the Premier 2585, Bannerman, Liberal, has only sixty two votes.

Ottawa—The Prime Minister made the following statement to a Canadian Press reporter: "I accept the verdict of the people. I have no further comment to make."

ANNOUNCEMENT OF RESULTS

Over three hundred people waited in the Strathmore Memorial Hall from 8 p.m. till midnight to listen to the results of the poll, as announced over a special wire installed in the building and connected up with the C.P.R. telegraphs. The intervals of waiting were filled in by a fine amateur concert. The thanks of local people are due to those whose enterprise enabled them to get first hand results in such a satisfactory manner, and also to the artists for their services.

IRRICIANA NEWS

Owing to Mrs. Craig's illness, Mrs. Stevens presided at the meeting of the C.P.W.A. last Saturday. The attendance was not large.

Rev. Kennedy left this week for Calgary, from where he will continue his journey to Toronto. We understand that previous to his departure, his library caught on fire and a number of his valuable books were burned. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

The pupils of grade XI received their diplomas from the Department of Education this week.

A reception was given Mr. Kennedy by the Old Fellows at the home of Mr. J. Porter, last Monday evening.

Large number were present and the evening was very much enjoyed. The flag which was purchased some time ago by the C.P.W.A. has been placed on the flag pole in front of the school.

POLITICAL MEETING

A very interesting political meeting was held here today when all the candidates were represented. Mr. Marshall spoke for one hour, Mr. Irvine spoke one hour, and the representative of Mr. Smith for forty minutes. It was one of the most interesting meetings.

The hall was crowded with both ladies and gentlemen.

Mr. Marshall spoke first and received splendid hearing and was given a good applause. At the close Mr. Irvine took the floor and was also given a good hearing, with the exception of a few outsiders or non-voters.

Among late troupe, I am sorry to say, was an officer of the Government, who should have known his place better. We hope he will read this and remember his proper place in the future.

Mr. Hollins objected to the meeting being monopolized by Mr. Irvine, then Mr. Joe. Smith was called upon and gave a few remarks. Mr. Schofield, C.P.A. director for East Calgary, gave advice in the time allotted him.

When the election results are known we hope that the campaign will result in much good in the way of education.

Election Meetings

No less than three political meetings were held in Strathmore during the past week, so that the citizens had no excuse for being ill-informed on the points at issue when they went to the polls yesterday.

The election being over, we do not propose to go into detail in reporting these meetings, other than to say that they all attracted large audiences, showing the attention being given to the issues by the electors.

Rev. Duncan Marshall

Spoke in the Memorial Hall on Thursday evening. The candidate did not show up till about nine-thirty, five minutes being delayed by some on the roads, but in the meantime Mrs. S. E. Hall led in community singing, with accompaniment by Mrs. Hille, and several selections and impromptu speeches kept the audience in good humor, though when Mr. S. took up with Mrs. Hall the question of the correspondence in last week's Standard regarding Mr. William Irvine's attitude to the Women's Institute, the sympathy of the audience was clearly with Mrs. Hall. Mr. S. also alleged that the singing that evening pointed in collusion with the Liberal party on the part of the Women's Institute.

The crowd was well repaid on their long wait when Mr. Marshall appeared, for he was in excellent form, and delivered a most inspiring speech, being awarded a hearty round of applause at the close. Several questions were asked him at the close, but he was able to dispose of the questions in short order.

Smith Meeting Saturday

There was also a good audience at the meeting held in the Memorial Hall on Saturday evening in support of the candidature of Mr. A. L. Smith, the speaker being, Miss Woodhall, Salentia and E. V. Hueston.

The principal speaker was Mr. E. V. Robertson, who defended the Government cause in a very able manner. Mr. W. K. Vickery presided.

Irvine Spoke Monday

The eleventh hour rally of the Irvine supporters, held in the Memorial Hall on Monday afternoon, was remarkably well attended. Mr. Gorb, Ardenode, occupied the chair. Mr. Davidson made the initial speech, and dealt with the tariff problem in an able manner and Mr. Irvine.

Wm. Irvine

Member for East Calgary

Calgary, Alta., in the view of contacts and others who are keeping in close touch with the movement in and out of the United States and are familiar with conditions as between United States and Canada, however, Immigration into Western Canada from the middle West and North-West is expected to be marked in the next year or two, perhaps for a longer period, according to dispatches from Washington. Agricultural depression following the purchase of high priced lands by farmers is given as the principal reason.

Who was also in good talking fettle, spoke of the latest developments in the campaign. With reference to the Women's Institute allegations, he stated that the article in question was not written by him, but by a Mrs. Dickson, a well known farm woman. He published the article because he believed it was true, and he was in sympathy with it. The Institute was a very useful body, but they would be better without government support.

Election Results

Were displayed at the Memorial Hall last night to a large audience, by special arrangement with the C.P.R. A special wire was laid from the Depot into the Hall, the cost being borne by local business men and others interested. Sections by various local artists followed the evening in the periods between announcements of results.

Canadian Rockies Abound in Legendary Lore

The countless peaks that cover vast stretches of western Canada are wrapped in Indian legends as well as those of more recent days. These are legends familiar, some are well-known, but a rich field awaits the seeker into the Indian lore concerning this region. For here another Canadian woman with a strain of Indian blood in her veins will do for the Canadian Rockies what Pauline Johnston did for Vancouver by recounting the Swallow legend.

Half and its environs are particularly rich in legendary atmosphere. It is safe to say that ninety per cent of the thousands who stop at Banff annually enjoy a last ride across Lake Minnewanka, a beautiful sheet of water rimmed in by looming mountains. The Indians have many legends concerning this lake, the most popular being of the name, which means Spirit Water. The legend runs that an Indian chief was crossing the lake in a canoe when an evil spirit arose from the waters, wrestled the frail craft and carried the chief down into the depths of the lake, from which the body never rose again. Indians to this day tell the tale with a new laugh at the tale and find even more attraction for bathing, fishing and camping.

Lake Minnewanka is some 12 miles long and between two and three miles wide. A considerable launch makes the 22-mile trip regularly. At the southern end a pier is made to allow passengers to inspect the scenic marvels, one of which is a gigantic "Hoodoo," which rises like a monument from the back of a rushing current, and bears a balanced rock upon its crest. Nearby is an excellent canoeing site and another is on the north shore opposite the entrance to Athabasca Canyon, from which it is comparatively easy to reach the 1,650 feet Mt. Athabasca.

Lake trout of great size inhabit Minnewanka and prove a magnet sufficient to counter-balance the lure of any supernatural figures, even, as attested by the numbers who stop at the Chalet beside the

KEOMA ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Ranby have arrived safely in New Zealand after a three week's journey. They had a most delightful trip, and except for occasionally bad weather for several days, two days from Vancouver, the journey was a very smooth one. The passengers had six hours ashore at Honolulu on a very fine and sunny day, and they spent a most delightful time touring around to the aquarium, to the polo matches, the fine sport beaches, through the beautiful palm drives and pineapple plantations amongst many other beautiful spots of those beautiful Isles of the Pacific.

Several concerts and fancy dress balls were held on the steamer, and the ships orchestra often provided instrumental concerts.

Going across the equator the weather was not exceptionally hot. Ten days sail from Honolulu the boat called at the Fiji Islands, and the passengers spent a very nice day amidst the tropical groves, brilliant gardens of the town of Suva, set in its beautiful valley of green verdure. Except for idyllic and idyllic it was the best season for fruit, the lemons and green bananas, to say nothing of coconuts, were seen growing on the trees.

Since the Ranbys have arrived in New Zealand they have been enjoying green peas, gooseberries and other vegetables and fruits. The country is a mass of green and many trees are out in full bloom. The gardens are a mass of the most beautiful scented roses and all the other well-known flowers are out in rich profusion.

Mr. and Mrs. Angelo Ranby wish their many friends at Keoma a very merry Christmas.

Facts Regarding The Grain Business

By CHARLES BIRKETT
(Special to the Standard)

INSPECTION OF GRAIN

The Grain Inspectors have no say in the price of grain, but they do say to shippers and exporters, not only to shippers of grain, but to business men generally, that they must not sell inferior grain. Their verdict depends on the inspection of a grain. A grain will receive for its grain, their verdict five the grade of the grain. The grain is certified, the grade on which the grain is bought and sold at home and abroad, and on which grain is stored in the public bonded elevators.

Canada is divided into three main sections: Western, Middle and Eastern. Western, from the Pacific Coast to Hudson's Bay.

Eastern, from the Atlantic Coast to Hudson's Bay.

There is a chief inspector for the Dominion with headquarters in Winnipeg. Under his supervision, 16 inspectors have charge of certain points in Canada.

A person, known as a grain inspector, must pass right examination. For this purpose a board of examiners is appointed which convenes with the chief inspector in Winnipeg, the examination being held in the city. The board issues the certificate of examination. Generally speaking, the examination is held once or twice a year.

One hundred and one different varieties of grain are raised in the Dominion, and the candidates grade them by numbers. He must receive 80 per cent correct answers in order to pass. The examination is a hard one and there is no chance of passing to fail. A small entrance fee is charged for candidates.

All grain from the West, destined for the east, is inspected in Winnipeg. Grain loaded into steamers at Port Williams and Port Arthur is inspected again at those points, and this inspection is final. Western grain grown east and west and to be exported out of Port Williams and Port Arthur.

Inspection officers must grade all grain in accordance with the rules defined.

It can definitely be stated that the inspectors in Winnipeg are not so strict as to the ownership of the grain when inspecting it. Some farmers seem to think that the inspectors have no information. All that the inspectors have is the ear number and the station it is shipped from.

The grade of any parcel of grain must not be above the official grade therein. It does not pay to put on the Inspector's name, keep power in each of all grain inspected by him, and be most inspect within his territorial limit, when called upon to do so.

He has full jurisdiction over grain in public bonded elevators. For instance, grain in these elevators cannot be transferred from one bin to another without his authority. It simply facilitates in these elevators are not provided for the proper sampling and inspecting of grain, the inspectors have full authority in order to make facilities installed.

Next week we will take up the shipping of grain.

SMILE

In the days of happiness, heart and soul, continually setting them apart.

And days of trouble will find you here.

With a smile that is in your heart.

A word or a smile from a friend you love.

A flower that blossoms a day.

A sunset rare or a moonlight night.

All gathered about the way.

NEWSPAPERS ATTENDING

TO BUSINESS

(When Sunday Day)

A feature of the present election campaign is the attitude of the newspapers. It is a curious attitude in other days, generally, the newspapers in the country, the newspapers with a political party, and in this business during the campaign, it is to support the candidate of their party and close his opponent. Some of the newspapers are attending chiefly to the work of making and publishing a newspaper. According to the Greenville Banner, the newspapers are not saying a word in this connection. The country newspapers are kept up to date by a staff of reporters into a real business.

The Montreal Herald also notes the change and explains that it is because the result of the same conditions which have produced the Progressive vote, not that a large number of papers are adopting the Progressive platform, but that "they have realized that the candidate of their party is the same as any other industry, and that it is a poor way to conduct a business to let it become the tool of any party or organization."

The Toronto Star commenting on the situation, declares that this change of attitude is markedly observed in the west, but not in Ontario alone. It also states it is not likely that this change will be as far as it is in the west.

The trend towards greater independence has been noticeable in the press of Canada for sometime. It was a natural development, but there is no doubt that the movement was greatly hastened by conditions in the newspapers, which made it absolutely necessary for publishers to get down to a strictly business basis or fail.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Red Cross Hospital of Port Williams is now open and some hundred patients are being treated. Mrs. William is the Matron in charge, and Miss McDonald is her assistant. The Canadian Red Cross has been reorganized and is making plans to care for the relief of that district. The Executive are making plans for the relief of the women of the F.P., U.F.W.A. The Women's Institute, the Board of Trade, and other local organizations.

The Hospital at Port Williams has been opened under the management of the Red Cross. The Society is cooperating with the Red Cross to maintain this Hospital.

The Provincial Headquarters is still getting a great many calls for clothing. Old clothing donations are very welcome. They should be sent in the Red Cross, O'Sullivan Block, Calgary.

There is a steady demand for children's suits and stockings from the districts where the Red Cross is distributing relief.

Emergency organizations of the Red Cross will be established in every province in Canada. They will be ready to function in case of disaster when relief is needed at a particular point in a hurry.

A glad surprise from a truly red heart.

A picture you looked at long.

A dream you had by the old camp fire.

A story of a beautiful scene.

The loving trust of a little child.

The hopes that are ever new.

The simple joy in the daily task.

The dreams that sometimes come true.

Days may be coming dark and long.

When sorrow will not depart.

But at least you will stronger and braver be.

For the smiles that are in your heart.

Strathmore School leaving rate payers should meeting was called on Thursday evening last, but the general counter attraction of Queen Mary's school across the road, prevented the attendance, and the meeting was adjourned without any business being done. The schools are, however, in a satisfactory position, financially and otherwise, and in next issue we intend to give some details of the work accomplished during the past year.

Tonight "Air's Button," is showing in the Memorial Hall. This famous play should attract a large attendance. The lights were given a tryout last week, and worked very well, showing a very clear picture. It is the intention to show pictures in the hall, and they will be all of first-class nature.

Santa Claus arrived in Strathmore on Saturday as per schedule, and his crowds of children followed him up town. Donald Marshall is to be congratulated on his enterprise in bringing the venerable Santa to Strathmore.

Bills are out announcing the performance by Strathmore Amateurs of the famous humorous play "When Sam Scared Red," to be presented in the Memorial Hall on the 15th. The Amateurs made a fine showing in the first play they presented, and it is expected that this one will be even better, and with the facilities offered by the large hall at the Memorial Hall, should give a fine chance for the amateurs.

Mr. E. Davidson's sale of men's cloth, etc., is still in full swing, and the bargains are being eagerly taken advantage of.

A big dance will be held in Night Hawk Hall on Wednesday, December 11. Donny Plummer's pipe orchestra providing the music. Mr. F. A. Orr is in charge of the entertainment.

As will be seen from our advertising column, the Strathmore Trading Co., is making a special offer of little more than free with purchases ad vertised.

The ad columns of the Standard are a powerful factor in helping to reduce the high cost of living these days, and readers should encourage those merchants who are giving the public the benefit of his reductions. Read the ads.

Strathmore Methodist Church has been completely redecorated, a fine job having been made by Mr. J. E. Luck, and will be open for public worship next Sunday. During the interval, the Presbyterian Church has been used by the congregation.

An out-of-town customer acknowledges receipt of a trainee from the Standard writer: "Thanks for your promptness and good work."

Mr. W. Vanhook is back from Toronto, where he has been engaged on summer on the big irrigation scheme, the heads of which have been guaranteed by the provincial government.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Lindgren are expecting the birth of a son on Friday morning last.

A local farm woman has protested against the removal of the fence at the old Auction Mart yard. We understand the fence is still up, and a bar stretched along there would meet the purpose. In the winter time old Dublin is still necessary, and being a self-starter sometimes, has to be tied up.

The election did not come any too soon. Some of our local politicians were getting so hot under the collar that it was beginning to be reminiscent of 1911 days. The interest shown by the public in the addresses of the various candidates is a very encouraging sign.

Strathmore School reports show for last term, exams the excellent record of 100 per cent passes in Grade 8, Departmental Exams, and 78 per cent passes in High School, a showing which is equal to several of the High Schools in the city of Calgary.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Union Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Strathmore on Thursday at 2 p.m.

PRINTER WAS PEEVED

Charley Harris, in the printing business, got slightly peeved at a letterhead from a doctor who wanted to see several thousand letters, of different sizes, different grades and different colors, and wanted the printing firm held standing. By Charley took his typewriter in hand and wrote:

"Am in the market for bids on an operation for appendicitis. Thus, over the last session, with no without effort, also with or without surgery, appendicitis is found to be so, want quotations to include putting stone back and excising operation. If removed, successful follow is expected to hold incision open for about thirty days, as I expect to be in the market for an operation for gallstones at that time and want to save the extra cost of cutting.

—Kansas City Post

Montreal, Que.—In 1879 the number of miles of steam railways in operation in Canada was 6,181; in 1880, 12,824; 1900, 17,141; 1909, 24,104; 1919, 28,886; 1920, 29,196.
